Gather the Material

Have all the necessary tools close at hand before starting to write the performance discussion narrative. This includes:

- A copy of the employee's performance plan
- Notes of previous meetings
- Employee input documents
- Written or recorded feedback on employee performance from other sources

NEW BEGINNINGS Performance Discussions

➤ DPMAP requires three performance discussions between supervisor and employee during the performance appraisal cycle.

THEY ARE:

- Initial Performance Planning Meeting
- Progress Review
- Final Performance Appraisal Discussion

➤ In addition to those required, more frequent and meaningful periodic discussions between supervisors and employees are HIGHLY encouraged. They help to:

- ✓ Understand expectations toward goals
- ✓ Facilitate supervisor-employee engagement
- ✓ Increase the amount of feedback
- ✓ Contribute to a more complete and accurately documented appraisal
- ✓ Encourage supervisors to recognize and reward deserving employees in a more timely manner

➤ All performance discussions should be given sufficient, uninterrupted time, in a suitable private location, and results documented
